(1) Roll Call

(2) Public Comment, Announcements, & Additional Events

Anyone can address Campus Council for one minute about concerns they have about the college, SGA, or anything else they believe should be brought to the attention of SGA.

Announcements

- The Office of Admission is hiring tour guides, summer interns, and senior interviewers
- Beginning in April, Primary Health Care Clinic will provide shuttle access to Grinnell/Poweshiek County patients for reproductive health care services in their Marshalltown location. The service is intended to provide easier access to high quality services given the recent closure of the Central Iowa Family Planning Clinic in Grinnell. See GrinnellShare for details about appointments, dates, times.
  - For more information about services, transportation, or appointments, contact Primary Health Care at 641-753-4021.
- Support group open to Grinnell students who are survivors of sexual assault and/or abuse
  - Held every Tuesday, 4:30-6p at CRSSJ Prayer Garage, drop-ins welcome
  - Designed to provide a safe space for reflection, healing, and peer support in consultation with Crisis Intervention Services advocates
  - For more information contact Morgen morgens@stopdvsa.org
- Trauma-informed yoga group open to Grinnell students who are survivors of sexual assault and/or abuse
  - Held every Thursday, 5-6p at CRSSJ Prayer Garage
  - All services free, materials provided, drop-ins welcome
  - For more information contact Julie juliej@stopdvsa.org
- A new computer science themed project house is looking for technology project proposals (especially SGA-related). Email [sga1] with any ideas.

- 04/08 DISCO, Harris, 10pm
- 04/06 Free Smoothie Study Break @ 8pm outside of Dhall
- 04/06 Scarlet and Give Back Day
  - Grinnell College’s 24-hour giving day - returns. During last year's Scarlet & Give Back Day, 3,597 individuals gave to the College, exceeding our goal for the day by more than 1,000 donors! This year we are excited to have a new goal and a new challenge! BUT we can’t tell you until the morning of April 6. Watch your email and web page for more details.
4/06 Professors Without Borders: Identity & Sense of Belonging, 11 a.m., Rosenfield Center, Room 101
- Grinnell professors with international backgrounds will talk about the ways in which their identity has evolved with their move to the U.S. Following a series of short talks, there will be a chance to chat with professors over lunch. Contact Danica Bojovic with any questions.

4/06 Open Access Scholarship, a Panel Discussion, 11 a.m., Burling Library Lounge
- Mark Edington, director of Amherst College Press; Michael Latham, vice president for academic affairs and dean of Grinnell College; and Mark Christel, librarian of Grinnell College, will discuss Lever Press, a "publisher of open access, digitally native, peer-reviewed scholarly monographs." Lever Press is a collaborative project, supported by over 40 liberal arts colleges working in partnership with Michigan Publishing and guided by an editorial board of distinguished faculty from top-ranked liberal arts colleges from across the United States.

4/06 "Rape Hysteria and the Sexual Economy of Race", 7 p.m., Rosenfield Center, Room 101

04/06 Origins of Terms of Trade, 7 p.m., Alumni Recitation Hall, Room 120
- Alan V. Deardorff, John W. Sweetland Professor of International Economics and professor of economics and public policy at the University of Michigan, has served as a consultant to many government agencies including the U.S. Departments of State, Treasury, and Labor and international institutions including OECD, UNCTAD, and the World Bank.

04/06 Indian Folk Singers, 8 p.m., Bucksbaum Center, Sebring-Lewis Concert Hall
- Prahlad Singh Tipanya and his ensemble sing the poetry of Kabir, the great iconoclastic mystic of fifteenth-century North India, in the vigorous and joyful folk style of Madhya Pradesh's Malwa region.

04/07 Opening Reception: BAX and Robert Hodierne, 4:30 p.m., Bucksbaum Center, Faulconer Gallery
- Opening reception for Robert Hodierne: Vietnam War Photographs and BAX (Bachelor of Arts Exhibition). Awards will be announced and refreshments will be served.

04/07 I <3 GC Day
- Participate in the field day on Friday afternoon and join us for Gardner Friday night where DJs from each class will perform. Wear your Grinnell gear, including your I <3 GC button! If you do not have a button, stop by the Student Alumni Council table in the JRC from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. while wearing your Grinnell gear to get one.

04/07 - 04/09 Pioneer Weekend
- Pioneer Weekend is a three-day innovation competition where college students interested in developing, designing, marketing, and startups are invited to try out their business ideas, build teams of peers, and win $3,500 in cash prizes. A panel of alumni and faculty mentors are available throughout the weekend to help students polish their pitches for a final presentation. Registration and additional Information is available on our website: http://www.pioneer-weekend.com/
